

The state of our democracy is increasingly imperiled by corporations making decisions about "news programming". I am horrified by Sinclair's use of control over its affiliated stations to promote a political agenda.